
What Is A Library?

"MANY THINGS . . . IT IS! EYES: The eyes of forty children sitting enraptured in once-a week stillness for a storytime; the urgency of that high school student who must have a book report right this minute; a Girl-Scout leader who is searching for material on Conservation for her troop. IT IS HANDS: The gnarled hands of old - timers selecting magazines and papers for quiet contemplation; the little fist with five pennies for the overdue, much - loved copy of Peter Rabbit.

IT IS POSTURES: The intense hunched back of students; the relaxed fiction reading of the housewife claiming thirty minutes from a busy day.

LIBRARIES, like books, are many things to many people. They play a vital role in a growing America. YOUR APPOMATTOX COUNTY LIBRARY is proud to have a part in the life and culture of the citizens of this community.

* * *

Through this column each week, we plan to present items of interest to you, library patrons, and to all potential readers and users of the library.

This week, we should like to call your attention to four new books. The "WHY I AM" series which are as follows:

Why I am an Episcopalian by John McGill Krumm, Nelson Co., 1961 $2.95 each; Why I am a Methodist by Roy L. Smith, Nelson Co., 1961 $2.65 each; Why I am a Presbyterian by Park Hays Miller, Nelson Co., 1961 $2.95 each; Why I am a Baptist by Louie Devotie Newton, Nelson Co., 1961 $2.95 each.

Leading spokesmen from each of the above denominations have asked to give personal accounts of the basic beliefs and role of their church life. They shall prove to a valuable key to the history, sacramenta, doctrines and the present positions to each of the nation's major Protestant religious groups.

Three library "Patrons" have already checked out three of the above titles — Mrs. Richard Jamaka, Mrs. Helen Harvey and Mrs. Martin Wcob — Perhaps they will favor us with a more detailed review as they continue with the reading. If any of our readers wish to have their names placed on the waiting list for the above books, please call Mrs. Cooney at the County Library — Tele. No. 2-2633.

The following poem says that books are bridges which we can cross to find not only wonder but to find ourselves. Such bridges lead us to many lands — into England where we can venture boldly with Robin Hood; into Spain, where we can ride forth with the knightly Don Guixote de la Mancha; into France where we can live with the fearless Joan of Arc. So — COME Let us read —

"Books are bridges, shining free,
Which link us to ourselves-to-be.
No one has to go their way—
He who chooses still may stay
In his yard or at his gate
While the shining bridges wait."

Virginia Scott Miner — from "Stars to Steer By" by Louis Untermeyer, Harcourt Brace, 1941

Pulliam Attends Meeting In Detroit

H. C. Pulliam, manager of Pulliam Motor Sales, Appomattox, was one of approximately 4,500 representatives of United States dealers of Ford farm and industrial tractors and equipment attending a nation wide meeting held by Ford Motor Company's tractor and Implement Operations in Detroit, Mich., September 18-19.

Highway

State highway workers have just finished hard surfacing 1.4 miles of roadway going northeast from Oakville at a cost of about $9,000. They are working now on Route 615, a 1.2 mile project with a new bridge over Davis Creek, coming southwest from Tower Hill, Appomattox County.

Cost of this will be about $25,000. Palmer reported, and will mean a roadbed drained, graded, and "stabilized." He explained that this involves the laying of gravel at least six inches deep and is preliminary preparation for a "black top" surface later on.

Back in Appomattox

Local and long distance motorists, alike, will enjoy in the future a dual - lane highway leading all the way from Thomas Torrace on 460 near Lynchburg to Appomattox, if present plans are carried through, he said.

"Million Dollar Mile"

Only the U. S. 60 project represents as much as $1,000,000 a mile for better, safer travel, Palmer said, but at least one other motorist has remarried to the TIMES staff that a new county road in her vicinity will make a "world of difference" to farmers and rural residents nearby.

Mass Chest X-Ray To Start Sept. 27

A mass chest x-ray program offering free x-rays to all persons 18 years of age or older will begin Thursday, Sept. 27, at Vera Texaco station in Appomattox from 2 to 5 p.m.

Other places in the county will be as follows: Friday, Sept 28, 9:30 a.m. until noon, McCormick's Store, Bent Creek; Friday, Sept. 28, 1:30 p.m., Martin's Store, Oakville; Monday, Oct 1, 9:30 a.m. to noon, Scott Spring Post Office; Monday, Oct 1, 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m., Cole's Store, Promised Land; Tuesday, Oct. 2, 9:30 a.m. to noon, Evans Store, Evergreen; Tuesday, Oct. 2, 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m., Hix's Store, Hixburg; Wednesday, Oct. 3, 9:30 a.m. to 5 a.m., Doctor's Bldg., Pamplin; Thursday, Oct. 4, 8 a.m. to noon, Appomattox Garment Factory, Appomattox; Thursday Oct 4, 1 to 2:30 p.m. Virginia Novelty Co.; Friday, Oct. 5, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. West End Market, Appomattox.

Rummage Sale

A Rummage and Bake Sale will be held Sat., Sept. 29 in the Averett Store Bldg., Appomattox, beginning at 9 a.m. according to an announcement by Mrs. E. L. McCraw, chairman of

Stonewall

Sept. 26 — We are having some more lovely fall days of which we appreciate very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Dyes and children spent last Monday in Colonial Heights with Rev. and Mrs. Charlie Spain and family.

Miss Joy Davidson spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Agnes Carson. Mrs. Carson and Joy spent Saturday in Covington with Rev. and Mrs. Bert Wilson and children.

Rev. and Mrs. John Leitner have as their week end guests his sister, Mrs. Greeory, of Portsmouth and their daughter, Miss Louise Leitner, of Richmond. Always so glad to have them with us on Sunday and for service at church.

Rev. W. L. Avers and Mrs. Agnes Carson visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chick on last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Drinkard, Sr. and grandson, Jonny, visited Mrs. Etta Routon and boys last week.

Mrs. Irby Wheeler and Mrs. Jack Caldwell visited Mrs. C. D. Carson, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chick visited with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blard and Lawrence on Sunday at Appomattox.

So glad to know Mrs. Wilten Routon has returned home from Virginia Baptist Hospital now improved. Hope she will soon be well once again.

Paul S. Drinkard, of Appomattox, was a guest in our community on Sunday. He also attended preaching service at Heiron, his old home church. He is always a welcome guest back here.

Cantrell Smith, of Lynchburg, spent last Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. C. D. Carren.

C. D. Drinkard, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chick and Harry Dewevry were business visitors in Brookneal last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Burnette visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Lawson and son, of Appomattox.

The Rev. and Mrs. John P. Lietner expect to leave on Wednesday for a vacation with loved ones in Portsmouth, Richmond, and North Carolina. They will also attend a family reunion of his brother's and sister's and their families on Sunday, Sept. 30. We wish for our good pastor and his fine wife a safe trip there and back to us.

Mrs. W. R. Stratten, of Appomattox visited her brother, H. B. Scruggs, and his family on Sunday.

Liberty Chapel

The family of Mrs. E. K. Martin enjoyed an evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Martin, of Appomattox. They celebrated the birthday of several members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Reynolds

GO CORVAIR for '63-IT'S EXCITI

Hard as it may be to believe, this year's Chevy II is better, better than last year's and better than anything in its class. It combines all the new easy-care features of the big Chevrolet with its own wonderful attributes of parkable size, four- or six-cylinder fuel economy and interiors that'd do justice to cars with twice its price and half its charm.

CHEVROLET

Change it? Calm yourself, nobody's going with a winner like this one! We did add new brakes and a more fully aluminized muffler and outside trim are refined a bit, but the Corvair with all the over-the-road goodness implies. Oh yes, we changed the taillights those people you pass will know you're one
